A Judge at a Show may not handle a dog in any Discipline on the day/s that they are officiating. This restriction does not apply in respect of another show held on the same day under a different license.

2.14.2 Non-Championship Shows

A Judge at a show may not enter a dog in the same Discipline (Breed, Obedience, Working Trials, IGP, Dog Jumping, Agility, Carting, etc.), as that in which they are officiating. A Judge at a Show may not handle a dog in any Discipline on the day/s that they are officiating. This restriction does not apply in respect of another show held on the same day under a different license.

2.14.3 A KUSA Representative may not enter, exhibit or handle a dog registered in his name at any KUSA Licensed event held at the same venue on the day that he is officiating, nor in the same Discipline held under the same license on any day.

2.15 Catalogue/Ring numbers

On entering the ring, a handler needs to display their exhibit number in order to be positively identified. The digits of the number should not be less than 2.5 cm in height, to identify each dog being judged. The dog's number shall be allocated and issued by the Show Holding Club.

2.16 Obedience Show Rings

All dogs shall be judged in suitable rings which must be thoroughly cleaned before judging starts. All judging shall take place in public.

2.16.1 If any classes take place indoors, the ring must be at least 15m X 10m and. The floor shall have a suitable surface in order that the classes can be judged without possible injury to handler and dog.

2.16.2 If the classes take place out of doors, the ring shall be at least 20m x 20m.

2.16.3 Save and except for the necessary entry by any official of the Show, and persons assisting disabled or wheelchair bound handlers, the only persons permitted in the ring during judging shall be the Judge, their Ring/decoy Stewards, their Ring Clerk and the handlers of the exhibits being judged.

Note.

In the event of there being extremely hot weather conditions a show holding club may provide a demarcated shade area where the stays may be judge.

3. JUDGING AT OBEDIENCE CLASSES.

3.1 Knowledge of rules

All handlers are expected to have a thorough knowledge of the Regulations covering the class entered. If requested by the judge to perform any task which does not conform with the regulations, the competitor has the right to consult the Show Manager.

3.2 Dogs tested separately

The judge must test each competing dog separately, except for the "stay" exercises where groups of dogs are in the ring together.

3.3 Collars

The judge(s) will ensure that during the exercises each dog under his jurisdiction wears only a plain slip or buckle type training collar made of chain, leather or material and worn only around the neck. Nothing may be attached to collars during the exercises except an identity disc with a diameter of not more than 30mm or leads when required.

3.4 Features of judging

3.4.1 The purpose of Obedience exercises is to demonstrate the usefulness of the dog as the companion of man.

3.4.2 The responsibility of making the class interesting to the spectators and worthwhile to the handlers is left to the Judge.

3.4.3 Dogs must be judged on their ability to perform the laid down exercises, and not upon their breed qualities.

3.4.4 Standardized judging is of paramount importance. Judges may not introduce their own variations into the exercises, but must see that each handler and dog executes the various exercises exactly as described. A handler who is familiar with the standard should be able to enter the ring without having to enquire how the judge's wishes to have the exercise performed. Judges must adhere strictly to the regulations and standards. In the event of any club appointing an Obedience Judge normally resident outside the area of jurisdiction of KUSA, it shall be the responsibility of the Show Manager to ensure that he is made familiar with and applies the terms, regulations and standards of this Schedule.

3.5 Interference with competitors

The judge of an Obedience Class must remove from competition any bitch in season and any dog which behaves in an uncontrollable manner. Any handler, who interferes willfully with another competitor or his dog, may be expelled from competition as well as any dog which the judge considers unfit to compete. Any bitch which appears so attractive to males as to be a disturbing element must also be removed from the competition. In the case of doubt an official veterinarian shall be called to give his opinion.

3.6 Withdrawal from competition

The owner or his deputy entering a dog in an Obedience Class does so at his own risk and must compete in all the exercises of each class in which it is entered, unless expelled by the Judge or excused by the Judge and Show Manager. For either or both of the following reasons:-

3.6.1. Illness/injury of the dog or the handler

3.6.2. Handler has an urgent personal reason for leaving the show

3.7 Disciplining of dogs

From the time a Judge takes control of assembled competitors to begin judging a class until the Judge dismisses the competitors after the results of a class have been announced, no handler in that class shall physically discipline a dog either inside or outside the ring. In the event of such physical disciplining occurring, or in the event of serious uncontrollable behaviour of a dog in the ring, the Judge will severely penalize the dog concerned by deducting points from the total score of the dog. In addition, the Judge may, at his discretion, exclude the dog from further competition in the class (see also Regulation 2.5).

3.8 Practice

Handlers will be allowed to practice with their dogs at a show subject to the provision of Regulation 3.7, however no practice or training may take place:

3.8.1. In any ring either before competition commences or while any class is in progress or remains uncompleted.

3.8.2. In such a way as to interfere with or distract competing dogs or handlers.

3.9 Rewarding dogs

The offering of food and or baiting a dog in the ring is forbidden. The carrying of food or training aids by the handler during the exercise is also forbidden. However, words of praise are permitted between exercises after the Judge or Steward has said "End of Exercise".

3.10 Handler's Commands

In all classes the handler may use the dog's name once before each command or signal without penalty. Where a signal is permitted and given, it must be a single gesture with the arm and/or hand only and the arm/hand must be promptly returned to its normal position. In the recall to heel the turning of the head simultaneously with the verbal command is allowed. Whistling or the use of a whistle is prohibited.

3.11 Commencement of exercise

No exercise shall commence until the handler has confirmed that he is ready to start. All exercises will finish only upon Judge's/Steward's order "End of Exercise".

3.12 Working requirements

The Judge is required to observe and score according to the following:

3.12.1. Enjoyment and willingness should be taken into consideration over a better working dog which shows fear and dislike of his work;

3.12.2. Gentleness and smoothness of handling is to be desired;

3.12.3. Talking to the dog by the handler, snapping of fingers, slapping of sides and stamping of feet must be penalized (except in Beginners and Novice Classes);

3.12.4. Commands and/or signals during "Stay" exercises are not allowed;

3.12.5. In all exercises the left side of the handler will be regarded as the "Working side". If the handler or the dog suffers from a physical disability he may work the dog on the right hand side provided he notifies the Judge before the commencement of the judging of the class;

3.12.6. In the "Finish" the dog may proceed to the "Working Side" direct or around the handler;

3.12.7. Dogs must not anticipate commands.

3.13 Graduated marking

In all exercises the points awarded must be graduated.

3.14 Marking of competitors

As each dog completes an exercise his score for the exercise must be entered by the Judge on their score sheet and that score must be made known to the handler and to spectators before the handler leaves the ring. If more than one exercise is completed by the competitor while in the ring, the judge may announce the scores on completion of the last exercise before the handler leaves the ring. Scores may not subsequently be changed except to correct arithmetical errors.

3.15 Equal Scores

3.15.1. In the case of a tie, when two (2) or more dogs have equal scores, those dogs shall be tested again immediately by having them perform SEPARATELY one (1) or more of the exercises of the Judge's choice in that Class, and without any change to the existing scores, the following criteria are to be observed:

3.15.1.1. In the case of an equal score for first placed dogs a run-off will be undertaken in accordance with this Regulation. On completion of the run-off the Record Card will be completed as follows:

3.15.1.1.1. The dog which wins the run-off will be the winner and the Record Card will be endorsed as such.

3.15.1.1.2 The dog that came second in the run-off will have the qualifying mark entered on card in the non-shaded line (but shall not share first place).

3.15.2 All competitors who achieve qualifying marks will likewise have their Record Cards endorsed in accordance with these Regulations.

3.16 Announcement of results

After scores are totaled and winners decided, before announcing the placings, the Judge will inform the public as to the total number of points required for a perfect score. They shall then announce the competitors that have qualified in the class, including any qualifications for an award of an Obedience Qualifying Certificate, and their scores as well as the scores of the other competitors placed.

3.17 Abnormal circumstances

If, in the Judge's opinion, the dog's performance in any exercise was prejudiced by peculiar and unusual circumstances, the Judge may re-judge the dog on the entire exercise.

3.18 Additional Commands

The Judge shall position themselves in the ring so as to be aware of additional signals and/or commands which might be given at any time or in any manner.

3.19 Adhering to regulations

No Judge shall require any dog or handler to neither do anything nor penalize a dog or handler for failing to do anything, which is not required by these regulations or in the Schedule and Description of Exercises.

3.20 Judge's orders

Judge's/Steward orders must be clear to enable everyone to follow the judging.

3.21 Events outside the regulations

In the event of circumstances arising not covered by KUSA Rules and Regulations, the Judge of the class will have discretionary powers to make a ruling subject to confirmation by KUSA. In such instances the Judge must submit a report setting out all details to KUSA within fourteen (14) days of the show.

3.22 Dogs Qualifying Record Cards

No Judge shall permit a dog to compete in any class which they are judging unless the handler produces before the start of the class his Dog's Qualifying Record Card showing that the dog is eligible to compete in that class. All the competitor's cards will be retained by the Judge until the results of the competition have been announced and only then will he return the cards to the competitors.

5. DESCRIPTION OF EXERCISES FOR OBEDIENCE CLASSES

Note (A) In these descriptions the word “command”, when used in relation to communication between handler and dog means the dog’s name followed by a spoken order or the dog’s name followed by a visual signal. In those instances where simultaneous spoken and visual command is permitted, the dog’s name may only be used once.

Note (B) Each exercise commences upon handler’s affirmation in reply to the judge’s/Steward’s question “Are you ready?” and ends when the Judge/Steward says “End of exercise”.

Note (C) The handler shall be standing upright with the dog in the “heel” position when commencing any exercise and also when sending the dog in the “Retrieve”, “Scent” and “Sendaway” exercises.

5.1 Heelwork

5.1.1 Heel on lead. Each handler will, on being called, enter the ring with his dog on a loose lead and will stand with the dog sitting at heel at the handler’s working side (i.e. in the “Heel position”) until the Judge/Steward asks if the handler is ready.

Upon affirmation the Judge/Steward will state the pace (normal, fast, slow) followed by the order ‘Forward’. The handler then gives the command to his dog to “Heel” and at the same time moves forward at the pace indicated. At the command to Heel the dog will accompany their handler close to the working side but without crowding, permitting the handler freedom of movement at all times.

Upon Judge’s/Steward’s order to halt, the handler will stop immediately and their dog will sit smartly and straight at Heel without command (command permitted in Beginners and Novice Classes) and will not move again until required to do so. Except in Classes “B” and “C”, it is permissible before moving again after each Halt for the handler to give the command to Heel.

Any tightening or jerking of the lead is to be penalized. In executing turns at the Halt or on the move, the dog is not to be penalized for turning in a contrary direction to the handler.

5.1.2 Heel Free. This exercise is to be executed in the same manner as ‘Heel on Lead’ except that the dog is off the lead. In this exercise the lead will be left on the Judge’s table.

5.1.3.1 In Beginners’ Class Heelwork is to be done on the lead only. It is to include not more than three (3) right, left and about turns and up to four (4) Halts all at normal pace.

5.1.3.2 In Novice Class, Heelwork includes moving at normal, fast and slow pace at Judge’s/Steward’s order with Halts and left, right and about turns, both at the Halt and on the move. Halts and turns on the move to be done at normal pace only.

5.1.3.3 In Class “A”, Heelwork will be similar to Novice Class except that Halts and turns on the move may be done at any pace, at Judge’s discretion.

5.1.4 In Classes “B” and “C” the handler and dog will be required at some point in the exercise to negotiate a figure of eight movement at normal pace.

5.1.5 In Class “C” at some time in the exercise, at the Judge’s discretion, the handler will be required, while walking at normal pace, to leave their dog in the Stand, Sit and Down positions (the order to be the same for each dog) as directed by the judge/Steward. The handler will continue forward alone without hesitation and continue as directed by the Judge/Steward until ordered to pick up their dog when both on handler’s command shall continue together. The principal features of this part of the Heel exercise are for the dog to work smartly and to respond promptly to the handler’s commands.

5.1.6 Orders to be used by Judge/Steward in this exercise are:

“Normal” (“fast” or “slow”) pace forward”

“Halt”

“At the Halt, about turn”

“Stand you dog” “Sit your dog” “Down your dog”

(each to be followed, as required by the Judge, by directional orders to the handler once the handler has taken at least four (4) paces after having given the command to their dog) and then ‘Pick up your dog’.

The orders to the handler in Heelwork will be in any sequence as required by the Judge’s Heel course, which must be the same for each dog in the class.

5.1.7 On receiving an order to turn the handler must make a sharp right angle turn to left or to right as ordered or a sharp turn through 180 degrees for an about turn, with the dog keeping as close to the handler as their respective movements permit. If the turn is to be made at the Halt, the handler will remain as nearly as possible at the same place with minimum movement in any direction.

5.2 Recall

- 5.2.1 The handler will stand at a place indicated by the Judge/Steward with their dog in the Heel position. Upon confirmation that the handler is ready the Judge/Steward will order him to leave their dog. The handler will then command the dog to stay in a "Sit" or "Down" position at the handler's choice and will move from the dog as directed by the Judge/Steward. When the handler has reached the place required by the Judge they will, on the order of the Judge/Steward, command the dog to come to them.

In the Beginners and Novice Classes, the order to the handler to recall their dog will only be given when the handler is stationary and facing the dog. When the dog has reached and sat in front of the handler upon order from the Judge/Steward the handler will command the dog to "Heel".

In Class "A" the order to the handler to recall their dog to Heel may be given at any time after the handler has left the dog and while the handler is moving in any direction except towards the dog. The handler will continue moving until ordered to halt by the Judge/Steward.

The principal features of this exercise are the steadiness of the dog when left until called by the handler and the prompt response to the handler's command at recall.

- 5.2.2 Orders to be used by Judge/Steward in this exercise are:

"Leave your dog, normal pace forward"

In Beginners and Novice Classes- "Halt" "About turn".

"Call your dog", "Finish".

In Class "A", after leaving the dog the handler will be given directional orders as required by the Judge in addition to "Call your dog" and "Halt".

5.3 Retrieve

- 5.3.1 The handler will stand at a place indicated by the Judge/Steward with their dog in the Heel position. Upon order from the Judge/Steward to throw the article the handler may command their dog to stay and then throw the retrieve article to the required distance as indicated by the Judge/Steward. If the article falls short or leaves the ring, the Judge will direct the Steward to return the article to the handler once only.

When the article is thrown to the Judge's satisfaction the handler will, upon order from the Judge/Steward, command the dog to retrieve the article. When the dog has delivered the article, the handler, upon order from the Judge/Steward, may command the dog to release the article and take it from the dog and, upon further order from the Judge/Steward, command the dog to "Heel". The size and mass of the dumbbell may vary with the size of the dog, and may be made of any solid material/s (other than food). In form it shall consist of two (2) end pieces roughly cubic, ball or disc shaped with a thinner connecting shaft.

The Judge's article may be of any substance except glass, food or anything injurious to the dog, must be clearly visible to the dog and must be capable of being picked up easily by any breed of dog. A separate similar article must be used for each dog.

The principal feature of the exercise is to retrieve promptly.

- 5.3.2 Orders to be used by the Judge/Steward in this exercise are:

"Throw the article" "Send your dog"

"Take the article" "Finish"

5.4 Distance control

- 5.4.1 In this exercise the handler will stand with their dog in the "Heel" position at a marked place indicated by the Judge and on order from the Judge/Steward leave their dog in the "Sit", "Down" or "Stand" position and proceed to a distance of at least ten (10) paces and halt, then turn around and face their dog. On the order from the Judge/Steward, the handler will give the following six (6) instructions to their dog in any sequence the judge may desire:

"Stand", "Sit", "Down", "Stand", "Sit", "Down".

After these six (6) instructions, the handler, on order from the Judge/Steward, will return to the dog.

- 5.4.1.1 Each handler must be given the six (6) instructions by the Judge/Steward in exactly the same order;

- 5.4.1.2 The handler may command their dog to follow the different instructions either by spoken command or by signal and with or without the use of the dog's name, at his discretion;

- 5.4.1.3 If, after the execution of the six (6) commands or up to the time that the exercise is terminated, the dog's back paws have not moved forward of the starting position of its front paws there may be no penalty for forward movement.

- 5.4.2 Orders to be used by the Judge/Steward in this exercise are:

"Down" ("Sit" or "Stand") your dog" "Leave your dog"

“About turn” “Halt” followed by the six (6) instructions for the handler to repeat to the dog. These instructions are to be given to the handler so as to be inaudible to the dog. Then-
“Return to your dog”.

5.5 Send away with drop and recall

5.5.1 Class “B”. The handler will stand with their dog in the Heel position at a place indicated by the Judge/Steward when the handler has indicated that he is ready the Judge/Steward will command the handler in his own time to set up their dog and send the dog forward about 20m to a black and / or white marker and command his dog into the “Down” position.” The marker shall be a vertical surface of at least 10cm x 10cm positioned face on to the dog. It shall be clearly visible to both the handler and the dog.

When the dog is down the handler will be ordered by the Judge/Steward to recall their dog or move as the Judge may direct and recall their dog while moving and continue until ordered to halt. The dog must remain in the “Down” position until recalled and then return smartly and directly to the handler, either sitting in front or continuing to move at Heel, as appropriate. When the dog sits in front, the handler will command it to “Heel” upon order of the Judge/Steward.

5.5.2 Once the handler has set up the dog for this exercise the orders to be used by the Judge/Steward are: “Are you ready?”

After receipt of an affirmative reply the next command by the Judge/Steward is:

“In your own time send your dog” followed by either “Call your dog”,

5.5.3 Class “C”. The exercise will be performed in the same manner as for Class “B”. The dog will be sent to a spot discreetly marked so that it is readily visible to the handler but not easily identifiable by the dog.

5.5.4 Judges/Steward’s orders are as for Class “B”.

5.6 Stay exercise

All competing dogs in a class perform this exercise together, unless there are too many dogs to arrange conveniently in the ring, when the competing dogs will be divided into the necessary number of sections. Each section will be required to perform the exercise under the same conditions, as nearly as possible. The dogs in the ring will be arranged in running order. If the exercise requires handlers to be out of sight of their dogs, handlers will move as directed by the Judge/Steward, after leaving their dogs, to a pre-arranged place out of sight of the dogs. The handlers should not be instructed to return to their dogs until the full time period has elapsed. The timing begins when the handlers leave their dogs. After the stipulated time has elapsed the Judge/Steward will order the handlers to return to their dogs. Handlers will return as directed by the Judge/Steward until they are in the place from which they left their dogs. Handler’s will not command or signal to their dogs or touch them or move again once they have returned to their place, until the exercise is ended.

5.6.1 Sit stay

5.6.1.1 Each handler will stand with his dog in the Heel position at the place indicated by the Judge/Steward. Upon order from the Judge/Steward each handler will command their dog to “Sit” and upon further order from the Judge/Steward will leave their dog without further command and proceed as ordered by the Judge/Steward.

5.6.1.2 Orders to be used by the Judge/Steward in this exercise are:

“Sit your dogs”

“Last command” “Leave your dogs”.

If the handlers remain in sight: “Halt”

If handlers are to face their dogs: “About turn”

“Return to your dogs”

5.6.2 Down stay

5.6.2.1 The exercise is performed as in the “Sit Stay” except that at the beginning of the exercise after handlers and dogs are in position, the handlers will, on the order of the Judge/Steward, put their dogs in the “Down position”.

5.6.2.2 Orders to be used by the Judge/Steward in this exercise are:

“Down your dogs”

“Last command” “Leave your dogs”

“Return to your dogs”

5.6.3 Stand stay

5.6.3.1 The exercise is performed as in the “Sit stay” except that at the beginning of the exercise after the handlers and dogs are in position the handlers will, on the order of the Judge/Steward, put their dogs in the “Stand” position.

5.6.3.2 Orders to be used by the Judge/Steward in this exercise are:

“Stand your dogs”.

“Last command”.

- "Leave your dogs".
- "Halt". (If handlers are to face away from their dogs)
- "About turn". (If handlers are to face their dogs)
- "Either "Return to your dogs" or "About turn. Return to your dogs".

5.7 Scent discrimination

5.7.1 All Classes

- 5.7.1.1 For each dog a Steward will place the handler's or Judge's scented cloth amongst, up to a maximum of nine (9) (excepting for Class "A" see regulation 5.7.2.) other cloths which should be handled for a short time by the Steward before placing them in position. Cloths may be placed in any pattern (excepting for Class "A" see regulation 5.7.2.) but must be approximately 50cm apart with the Judge's or handler's cloth positioned according to the Judge's instruction. The nearest cloth must be within an area approximately five (5) meters from the handler and dog's starting point.
- 5.7.1.2 Handler and dog must be faced away when the Judges/decoy Steward's/handler's cloths are being placed. At no time may the cloth be given or shown to the dog prior to the start of the exercise.
- 5.7.1.3 Any cloth, which is mouthed or physically fouled during the exercise and each decoy Steward's cloth, must be replaced for the next competitor. Cloths must be clearly and carefully marked to avoid any possible confusion. All cloths to be approximately 15cm X 15cm, identical in colour and texture and visible to the dog.
- 5.7.1.4 The dog will remain in the "Heel" position while scent is being taken. On order from the Judge/steward the handler will proceed with the exercise in their own time. On command from the handler, the dog must proceed to the cloths and select the correct cloth. Without further command from the handler, the dog must return promptly and sit straight in front of the handler. On further order from the Judge/Steward the handler will take the cloth. On further order from the Judge/Steward, the handler will command the dog to heel.
- 5.7.1.5 If any command or signal is given to the dog while it is close to or examining the cloths the penalty must be severe. If any command or signal is given while the dog is at the correct cloth no marks can be awarded for the exercise. Dogs will not be penalized for lightly taking a cloth in the mouth and quickly putting it down again at the same place. (Should a dog move a cloth more than 50cm it should be penalized.)
- 5.7.1.6 The time allowed for the exercise is at the Judge's discretion but reasonable time is to be allowed while the dog is obviously working.
- 5.7.1.7 Every care must be taken by all concerned both before and during the exercise, to ensure that no cross scenting takes place with any of the cloths. The neutral and decoy cloths provided by the Judge should on no account be touched by the judge.

5.7.2 Class A

The handler's own cloth (size approximately 15cm x 15cm) and scented by the handler, will be placed with five (5) cloths supplied by the judge. There shall be no decoy cloths. The six cloths must be set out in a straight line in any direction with due regard to wind direction.

5.7.3 Class B

On entering the ring each handler will be given one (1) or two (2) (at their choice) similar cloths for scenting. The second cloth (if requested) will be used to give scent to the dog. A decoy steward will scent a single decoy cloth and place it in position. Handlers and decoy stewards will scent their cloths for thirty (30) seconds.

5.7.4 Class C

The Judge shall provide for each dog two (2) cloths, one to be placed by the steward for selection by the dog and the other given to the handler by the judge for the purpose of giving scent to the dog. At least two (2) decoy cloths must be used, placed by separate decoy stewards and changed for each dog. The judge's two (2) cloths used for the dog and the decoy steward's cloths will be scented by the judge and decoy stewards respectively for one (1) minute before being used.

5.7.5 Orders to be used by the judge/Steward in this exercise are:

- "In your own time send your dog"
- "Take the cloth"
- "Finish"

After taking the recovered cloth from the handler, the steward will show it to the judge and the judge will announce publicly whether or not it is the correct cloth.
