- 1.20. Prior to the show or event to be judged by them, Judges shall avoid socialising with persons likely to compete under them.
- 1.21. If placed in an unavoidable compromising position as a result of a close relationship with an Exhibitor/Competitor, if and when practicable, Judges shall encourage the option of a "lap of honour", instead of subjecting dogs to assessment and placement for awards that may ultimately be deemed suspect.
- 1.22. It is suggested that, during a discernible period (at Judges' discretion) preceding any judging assignment, Judges shall avoid acting as a spectator to the judging of dogs they are likely to judge at such scheduled assignment.
- 1.23. In deference to the principles of neutrality and impartiality and in order not to show favour, Judges shall exercise the utmost discretion when discussing dogs likely to be judged by them, or by other Judges, with any person.
- 1.24. Similarly, in upholding the principles of neutrality and impartiality, Judges shall exercise sound judgement when commenting on dogs likely to be judged by them, or by other Judges, on Social Media, as not to reveal predilection or dislike.
- 1.25. When commenting on dog- or dogsport-related issues, Judges shall use Social Media advisedly and prudently and confine their opinions to reasoned discourse based on fact, resisting speculation, innuendo and aspersion.
- 1.26. Judges shall not criticise the work of other Judges, either verbally, in print or on Social Media.
- 1.27. Judges shall refrain from engaging in offensive conduct or defamatory statements aimed at discrediting the Kennel Union or the FCI.
- 1.28. Judges shall be mindful of the fact that they derive their judging licence from the Kennel Union and thereby assume the responsibility not to act in a manner which is inconsistent with the grant of such licence. A licence entrusted in good faith can be revoked when no longer deemed to be in the best interests of the licensor and it should be understood that KUSA will not countenance being besmirched and its reputation tarnished, by those holding its licences.
